5 Functions of Political Parties Current Events Article

Now that you know what political parties do, it is now time to find them in action. Your assignment is to find an article from a newspaper, magazine, or the Internet that shows one of the five functions of political parties being performed. This article must be from the past month and you must bring in the article and staple it to this sheet with your response. After finding the article, your task is to write at least one well-written paragraph explaining how your article relates to one of the five functions. This is not an article review. This is to demonstrate your knowledge of the function of government and see how this is applied in a real life example. You can write your paragraph here:
