Part Four Assignment

Your assignment for Part Four is to interview someone who has been or is currently in the military. The questions listed below are the questions that you must ask this person. Feel free to ask more than what is required.

1. What branch of the military are you serving in or did you serve? If you were formerly in the military, what years did you serve? If you are currently in the military, how long have you been in the military and how long is your enlistment?
2. Name one interesting story from your military experience. (This could be something from combat experience, from training, etc)
3. What is your view of the amount of US presence around the world? Do you think we should increase, decrease, or keep our presence that we currently have around the world?
4. What role do you think diplomacy has in our foreign policy?
5. In your opinion, do you think that we should increase, decrease, or maintain our current spending level on defense? Explain your answer.
6. If cuts had to be made to the defense budget, where would you suggest that cuts are made?
7. If increases were made to the defense budget, where would you suggest that those increased dollars be spent?

Name of the person you interviewed _____

Signature, phone number or email address _____

During the interview, you should be taking notes or recording their answers to the questions above. After the interview, you need to complete the following:

1. Type the answers to questions 1-7 above. Use your notes or recording to clearly explain the answers of the person you interviewed.
2. In a well-written paragraph, please give your personal reaction to your interview. (What was interesting, surprising, etc?)
3. Staple this sheet (complete with the interviewee's name and either signature, phone number, or email address) to your answer sheet.
