

CHAPTER 6 WORKSHEETS

III. INTERPRETING A DIAGRAM

A. Using the information in your text and on the diagram, answer the questions in the spaces provided.

1. Which group was responsible for electing aediles and quaestors? _____
2. Which group had power to veto the action of the Senate? How is this shown on the diagram? _____

3. How is the role of the consuls distinguished from that of other officials in this diagram? _____
4. How does this diagram indicate the function of a republic? _____
5. How would this diagram change if Rome were engaged in a war? _____

B. Use an encyclopedia to find out how the three branches of the United States government function. Then on a separate sheet of paper, describe how Roman ideas influenced our country's system of government.